

Wine List: Cabernet

- Michael Pozzan-Sonoma 2008* 32
Fragrant aromas of black cherry and mocha; enticing finish.
- Alexander Valley-Sonoma 2008* 37
Rich and savory combination of five robust grape varietals; dark, structured and persistent character. Bordeaux barrel-aged.
- Rodney Strong-Alexander Valley 2008* 38
Intense and full-bodied with earthy flavors of oak, leather and sage and a dense, savory finish.
- Novelty Hill-Columbia Valley 2006* 39
Bold, deep and highly extracted. Dark oak aromas precede a Bordeaux-like character; a huge, brooding Cabernet.
- Raymond, Sommelier's Reserve-Napa 2007* 42
Graceful cherry and chocolate flavors are firm and hearty; ripe, full and polished finish.
- Sebastiani Secolo-Alexander Valley 2006* 46
Generous, bold flavors of oak, coffee and mocha; long, persistent finish reveals surprising depth and strength.
- Amavi Cellars-Walla Walla Valley 2005* 47
Intense package of floral and berry nuances; solid, firm fruit flavors of plum, cherry and currants.
- Waterstone-Napa 2007-2008* 49
Ripe, focused and supple with tremendous dark fruit flavors. The infamous "ghost wine" of Napa Valley sources its grapes from the Napa's top vineyards.
- Tapestry-Napa 2006* 59
Abundant flavors of chocolate and dark cherries-greatest B.V. Tapestry ever!
- Ridge Estate-Santa Cruz Mountains 2008* 66
Saturated fruit intensity with an opaque purple color; huge flavors of blackberry, oak and dark chocolate.
- Hall Vineyards-Napa 2008* 68
Stunning combination of power, elegance and complexity; rich flavors of Crème de Cassis, mocha and blueberry. Greatest Hall ever! Primarily sourced from Sacrashe Vineyards.
- Snowden Ranch Reserve-Napa 2007* 77
Rich, robust and rare. Brilliant nuances of blackberry and mocha..stunning!
- Robert Craig, Affinity-Napa 2007* 78
Powerful and distinctive, this massive red builds strong structure with layers; complex Bordeaux varietals add depth and rusticity.
- Larkmead-Napa 2002* 78
Full-bodied and smooth with layers of structure and complexity; delicious flavors of chocolate and oak.
- Anderson's Conn Valley-Napa 2006* 79
Plush, brooding red delivers the entire package; black cherries, spice box and oak are the dominant flavors.
- Cliff Lede-Silverado Trail 2004* 85
Firm, intense and full-bodied; delicious concentration of flavors featuring bittersweet chocolate and currants.
- Coho Headwaters-Napa 2006* 89
Solid, balanced and totally focused; huge structure and depth without tasting heavy...the rarest of finds.
- Columbia Crest Reserve-Napa 2005* 97
Wine of the Year in the world according to Wine Spectator magazine...incredible finish!
- Eloge, Anderson's Conn Valley -Napa 2005* 99
Brilliant purity and intensity; Bordeaux varietals provide depth and complexity. Tremendous flavors of mocha, blackberries and chocolate.
- Snowden, Napa Reserve-Napa 2007* 129
Decadent aromas of blackberry, espresso, cedar and red currants; complex, intense and concentrated. A candidate for Wine of the Vintage!
- Chateau Montelena-Napa 2002* 169
Stunning nuances of chocolate, blackberry and oak. Amazing finish that goes on and on, perfectly mature. Limited quantity.

VINTAGE HOUSE

271 Third Avenue Northwest ♦ Hickory, North Carolina 28601
Phone: 828.324.1210 ♦ Email: vintagehousehickory@charter.net